(Selected Lyrics)

A Passing Day

Why am I so tired and dead
The feelings of guilt all run through my head
The silent breeze and the morning air
In the middle of summer, not a single care

I walk along the stony, white path
With the sun on my face and the wind at my back
The stagnant pace, I move so slow
With nothing to do and nowhere to go
But I think too much
That's all they ever say
It's a way of life
This is a passing day

So many hours that try to pass
So many ideas that never last
The sleepless nights, the wasted days
Please let this be just another phase
But I think too much
That's all they ever say
It's a way of life
This is a passing day

I can't live this all alone
What have I done, what have I shown?
Will this be my image of me?
What will I do, what will I be?

Standing still above the lifeless pond
With the growing fear of moving on It's the same old day that I'm hiding from
I turn away, wait for tomorrow to come
But I think too much
That's all they ever say
It's a way of life
This is a passing day

A Summer's Dream

It was like a dream
A summer's dream
The things I heard
And all I hear
The sky was blue and it sang to me
The sweetest song it seemed to be

Was it just a dream?
A summer's dream?
The things I saw
And all I see
The clouds would dance across the sky
The sun smiled on as I passed by
And all I want to do is run so far away
To where the dreams are made, to where the dreams can stay
And all I want to do is run so far away
So all the things I see will never go away

It was all a dream
A summer's dream
The things I felt
And all I feel
The wind was soft as it walked with me
The air around was like the sea
And all I want to do is run so far away
To where the dreams are made, to where the dreams can stay
And all I want to do is run so far away
So all the things I feel will never go away
It was just a dream
A summer's dream

Alone

I'm standing all alone above the deep blue sea
And mourning to myself at all I'll ever be... Alone

There's got to be a reason, there's got to be a cure
I want this loneliness to disappear
And the hopeless feelings and the endless fear
I wish all of them away from here... I'm alone

I've sailed around the world and I've got to see
Enough beauty and love for an eternity
But what is the use if no one else is there?
Visions like this I only want to share
So I won't go on sailing through this insanity
I fall into the waters of the deep blue sea
Where I'll sink down deep to where I'll always be A watery grave where I'll never be... Alone

Another Song

I sit here staring, sit and stare
The sounds of summer sound so near
The sun in the water and in my eyes
Is where my laughter truly lies
I sit and listen, listen close
Some time to think what means the most
The words in the water and in my head
Is what I've always done and said

I sit here singing, sit and sing
And search my heart, search again
The sun in the water and in my eyes
Is where my laughter truly lies
I sit and think, I sit and wonder
About who we are, I laugh and wonder
The words in the water and in my head
Is what I've always done and said
When I sit in peace I sing to myself
I always smile and nobody else
This time is spent before it's gone
I sit and write another song

It's time to stand and walk away
With another song, another day
The words in the water and in my head
Is what I've always done and said
When I sit in peace I sing to myself
I always smile and nobody else
This time is spent before it's gone
I sit and write another song

Awake At Dawn

Something awoke me at dawn
Morning-birds arrive with a song
And at this moment the world stands still
A calming peace is all I feel
The sun stirs up a gentle breeze
And paints the sky like from a dream

The earth has risen from its slumber
Its serenity makes me wonder
And at this moment I am a child
Living life for the first time
Everything seems so true
And all at once, so brand new

Its beauty takes me away
I can feel the warmth on my face
And at this moment I have learned
All the reasons the world turns
I have seen perfection
Stood at the gates of Heaven

Chase the Clouds

Wide eyes, your gaze is like the sky
So shy, indulge and mesmerize
Breathe in all the life it brings
Wide eyes, your gaze is like the sky

Sweet sun, your smile is like the sun
Bright one, entice and overcome
Bask in all the light it brings
Sweet sun, your smile is like the sun
If only I had known you
Before the sky turned grey
I wouldn't need your sun to
Chase the clouds away

Most free, your soul is like a dream
Deep sea, embrace and elate me
Bathe in all the love it brings
Most free, your soul is like a dream
If only I had known you
Before the sky turned grey
I wouldn't need your sun to
Chase the clouds away

Daydream

The days grow cold and my feelings fade
There's nothing left to guide my way
And the dreams of a life with a different name
Are fading as fast as the pouring rain
So if I go into this day
And wake every morning with nothing to say
Then I know I have failed, again and again
With nothing left, again and again

One by one my dreams start to die
I live in a world that doesn't cry
And my only love and the reasons why
Will never matter, they only go by
So that's why I go into this day
And doubt every moment and turn away
I wish I knew the words I could say
I wish for a name day after day
But if I go away, away
I'll find inside a peaceful place
And if I go away, away
I'll feel inside, again and again

Everyday my feelings fade
Another day without a name
Another day without a face
I'll fade inside without a place
So now I go into this day
And search every moment for something to say
But the dream is slowly dying now
Thought after thought, I don't know how
But if I go away, away
I'll sing inside and never fade
And if I go away, away
I'll dream inside, again and again

Don't Take Away My Sky

There are two kinds of people in this world
I want to know, which one are you?
There are those who can only exploit
Then there are those who actually do
I don't need exploitation
I have imagination

I know what I am doing
And I don't want to listen to you
I don't need critics, you know what I say
They are the people who could not do
I had to find
I found what's mine

If you don't want me, then leave me alone
Don't tell me I am weird
When I am gone and so are you
They will remember I was here
I left a part of me
I left my melody

There is a place up in the sky
Where I can reach for anything
I don't have to stare at the ground
When all I need is to imagine
I can reach so high
I can pull down the sky

So don't you take away my sky
Don't you take away my sky

Ethereal

I can feel your face beneath the sun
Touch its grace
Shinning down a hundred-thousand years
Silver rays
And all the tears dissolve away

Listen to you breathe upon the earth
Hear its ease
Singing sound a hundred-thousand years
Sacred breeze
And all the tears dissolve in me

See your soul within the ocean
Watch its flow
Swirling around a hundred-thousand years
Ethereal
And all the tears dissolve and go

Forever

Wake up now
And let it go
Wipe the tears
That fall so slow
I found today
I'm all alone
There's no one here
The truth be known
Of all the things to be
All I need is me... Forever

I remember when
I couldn't cry
And never knew
That all must die
All my life
Has been a dream
Full of hope
So it may seem
Of all the things I did
I wish I were a kid... Forever

I've tried so hard
To make you see
I'm nothing but Simplicity
And now I know
I'm not the same
Sometimes I wish
I had no name
Of all the things to say
I'm going to be this way... Forever

Hope

Always by my side
You make me want to live
When all I do is cry
You are all there is

Watching over me
You show me what to do
When I'm down on my knees
All I have is you
I can't let go of you now
Stay with me
Help me through this day now
I'm begging you please

Whisper me to sleep
You let my spirit rest
When I've run out of dreams
You are all that's left
I can't let go of you now
Stay with me
Help me through this day now
I'm begging you please

Always by my side
You make me want to live
When all I do is cry
You are all there is

Inspiration

It's like a cloud that floats in the sky
Creating images that blow through my mind
Dancing softly around and around me
Always flowing so free, they surround me
Makes me feel like I can
Do anything

It's like the taste of the rain in the summer
And the delicate sound of the thunder
Whispering gently the words of simplicity
Always singing so soft and beautifully
Makes me feel like I can
Do anything
I can do anything
All that I imagine
I can do anything
All the inspiration

It's like a breeze that flows through my body
Breathing new life within and around me
Drifting endlessly, it pulls at my soul
Always taking me where I want to go
Makes me feel like I can
Do anything
I can do anything
All that I imagine
I can do anything
All the inspiration

Let's Run Away

I wish this dream would never end
Just to touch your face and hair again
To run through out the fields of spring
And laugh with all the joy you bring

Remembering me, remembering you
I remember the things that we used to do
Like a happy dream that never ends
Like a hopeless dream that always ends
Run away, let's run away
Off to the place where angels play
Run away, let's run away
And live my dream just one more day

Run away, let's run away
But in the fields we have to stay
Run away, let's run away
It's just another dream for another day

Through your teary eyes you looked at me
"You're still the prettiest girl I've ever seen"
And like the sun through the clouds you smiled at me
Please don't cry we can always dream

Love

The wind through your hair is beauty to me
The sound of your voice is all that I need
To think about you is all that I do
And all that I want is to be with you

The rain on your face is beauty to me
The sight of your smile is all that I need
To dream about you is all that I do
And all that I want is to be with you
You are everything to me
You are everything to me
You are everything
You are everything

The clouds in your eyes are beauty to me
The touch of your hand is all that I need
To wish about you is all that I do
And all that I want is to be with you
You are everything to me
You are everything to me
You are everything
You are everything

Melody

Bow my head, please let me slip away
Rather than torture myself one more day
Broken dreams, the world is full of pain
Knock me down and crush my heart again

Tonight the rain has come to wash away
The sins and ugliness of this past day
And through the breeze I hear a melody
Reminds me of just how sweet life can be
It makes me want to hang on
It makes me want to hang on

On my knees, I want to come home
Rather than keep on wasting my poor soul
All alone, the world despises me
Turn away and show no mercy
Tonight the rain has come to wash away
The pain and loneliness of this past day
And through the breeze I hear a melody
Reminds me of us all and our beauty
It makes me want to hang on
It makes me want to hang on

Nothing For Now

How can I keep going on this way?
Nothing seems to change
And all this time
Is nothing but a waste

Nothing ever really seems to change
Everything's the same
And all this time
Is nothing but a waste

How am I going on this way?
When nothing ever seems to change

I hope that nothing stays the same
Going on this way
And all this time
Is nothing but a waste

Out!

A year this time and ten more rhymes
Another cut for you to find
Your face is bright and your hands are wide
With nothing to give and everything to hide
But now I know it's me, not you
The one to win, the one to do
To make the way it's got to be
It's never you, it's always me

You said this time it couldn't be
And took my heart away from me
You stood so tall and had to say
"There is no hope, not one more day"
But now I know it's me, not you
The one to win, the one to do
To make the way it's got to be
It's never you, it's always me

If you don't cry when I bleed
Don't laugh when I smile

You sat and sought the best of me
Then turned away and wouldn't see
I crawl to you and try to explain
To calm my hate and save my name
But now I know it's me, not you
The one to win, the one to do
To make the way it's got to be
It's never you, it's always me

Rain

"I love the rain," I said
"It reminds me of the day I saw
You by the tree," I said
And you were standing all alone
I asked you, "What's your name?"
And you smiled at me, oh so shy
And then we watched the rain
All through the day and into the night
And that's why, and that's why I love the rain
It reminds me of you

"I love the rain," I said
"It reminds me of the day I first Held your hand," I said
And you were so beautiful
I asked, "Will you be mine?"
And you turned to me and you kissed my cheek
And then we watched the rain
All through the day and into the night
And that's why, and that's why I love the rain
It reminds me of you

"I love the rain," I said
"It reminds me of the day I fell
In love with you," I said
You always made me feel so good
I asked, "Is this forever?"
And you threw your arms around my neck
And then we watched the rain
All through the day and into the night
And that's why, and that's why I love the rain
It reminds me of you

Reflection

You always were the one
To tell me that I'd be somebody
You always believed in me
When no one else could even see
And if you want to sit
And watch the rain and dream away
Then I will sit with you
And dream away, I promise you
It's gonna be all right

You always were the one
To think so big and live it up
You always thought as big
As life itself, so don't give up
And if you want to walk
With your head in the clouds and never come down
Then I will walk with you
And never come down, I promise you
It's gonna be all right

You always were the one
To sing to me when I was down
You always told me that
Anything could happen inside a song
And if you want to run
Across the sky and chase down rainbows
Then I will run with you
And chase down rainbows, I promise you
It's gonna be all right

Remember The Rain

It's raining now, and all I remember
Is how you are a friend forever
And even though you're nowhere around
I'll always hear the sweet happy sound
Of your voice, when I am down
And your voice sings me a song
I know, I know
I will always remember you

It's raining now, and all I remember
Is how you are away forever
It's not the same since you've been gone
You've been away much too long
I miss you, can't you see?
I miss you next to me
I know, I know
I will always remember you

Remember me, remember the rain
I will always remember you
Remember me, remember the rain
I will always remember you

It's raining now, and all I remember
Is how you are with me forever
Inside a song I sing to myself
And every thought I think to myself
I'll always remember this day
And always remember the rain
I know, I know
I will always remember you

Silent Storm

Watching the storm roll silently towards me
The sky turns grey in a raging ocean
Surrounded by whispers in a wailing wind
I cry as the sadness slowly sets in Watching the rain fall silently near me
While secret places grow cold and empty
And teary eyes that fill with sorrow
That cry at today and cry at tomorrow

Walking in circles with no one to hold me
I fall to the ground and reach for the memory
While black stormy skies grow ever so colder
I search for a girl, I know I won't find her
Walking in circles with no one beside me
The silent storm grows deeper inside me
And teary eyes that fill with sorrow
That cry at today and cry at tomorrow
Everything seems so silent and stormy
With no one to touch, no one to hold me
Everything seems so cold and empty
With no one to love, no one to love me

Waiting in silence, I stand next to nothing
I sit next to nothing, I cry next to nothing
The storm won't pass and the skies won't clear
I wish for a memory to someday be here
Waiting in sorrow the storm falls upon me
In a secret place my tears fall inside me
And here I'll wait through rain and tears
And hope for a memory to someday be here

Simple Song

All my life has been
You and I, so then
Take my hand, never
Let me go, ever
You are all I
Ever need

You will be always
Part of me because
Every dream's never
Without you, ever
You are all I
Ever need
And when I am with you
Everything I feel seems so simple
And when I am with you
Everything I feel seems so simple

I am yours to be
Everything you need
And I will never
Let you down, ever
You are all I
Ever need
And when I am with you
Everything I feel seems so simple
And when I am with you
Everything I feel seems so simple
I love you

The Deep Blue Sea

As I sink into the deep blue sea
Gentle waves flow over me
As I sink into the deep blue sea
Peaceful dreams wash over me
And I know, now I know
The water surrounds me and I'll be alone no more
And I won't cry
I won't cry
No, I won't cry
I won't cry
I'll always be
Forever and ever a part of the deep blue sea

The Dying Hour

I lie all alone, I only want to stare
At the ceiling above, a frown I wear
In the middle of silence, the middle of fear
On the dying hour I shed a tear
I walked the same paths, but walked all alone
Through the brutal dark storms where the light never shows

Surrounded by sounds that break through my soul
On the dying hour I feel so cold
Why do the people all look the same?
Tell me why do the people all smother my name?
I'm lost forever on my darkest day
On the dying hour I'll slip away

On the dying hour, the dying hour
I'll fall asleep on the dying hour
On the dying hour, the dying hour
I'll never awake on the dying hour
The dying hour
The dying hour

Tranquility

Dreamt a dream of orange horizons
Soft, warm glow like rings surround me
Singing...

Sweet tranquility
Sweet tranquility

Thought a thought of far-off voyages
One by one, parade before me
Singing...

Sweet tranquility
Sweet tranquility

Sang a song with no beginning
Fills the time and space within me
Singing...

Sweet tranquility
Sweet tranquility
